

Nisqually and the Tribal Canoe Journeys~ 20 years of photos

@ the Tribal LIBRARY
open : M-F 9am - 5pm

The Nisqually Tribe has participated in over 20 years of the annual tribal canoe journeys , travelling from the bottom of the Salish Sea up to Canada and around the Olympia peninsula to the Coast. During that time Allen Frazier took many photographs, which became an online documentation of these journeys (www.washingtonruralheritage.org). Come see a small selection of these awesome images.

ON DISPLAY FOR THE SUMMER ~ 2016
